STAFF REFLECTIONS

Sarah Green, Parish Secretary, Bulletin, Ascension

I often pray to God asking him how I can be a better person. More loving, patient and kind.

The readings today are a reminder for me that this is something I should continue to work on and pray for. Treating others with kindness and respect, resolving conflicts peacefully, forgiveness, and helping others in need. These are all things that show love to others. Sometimes these things are easier said than done, but I know with the Lord by my side I can be better about showing love to others. Imagine what a much better place the world would be if everyone treated one another with nothing but love. Just like the second reading tells us, "Love does no evil to the neighbor...".

Keeping this in the back of my mind helps me to consciously be more loving in my thoughts and actions. I hope that when you listen to the readings this weekend, they speak to your heart.

"If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts".

I am going to leave you with one of my favorite Bible verses that speaks about love:

"Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth."

1 Corinthians 13

Sarah Green

It takes a VILLAGE

We are looking for a few weekend volunteers to assist with a few minor things in our Church and Chapel.

-Organize the hymnals in the pew sometimes the hymnals can get scattered (no hymnals in one pew, while the next pew has too many).

-Wipe the window ledges

our window ledges in the Church and Chapel can, at times, become dusty.

If you can help, contact Joe Whatley, jwhatley@stalbertthegreat.net
