STAFF REFLECTIONS

CHRISTIAN COSAS, Music Director St. Charles

For close to 30 years, I have struggled with some form of depression. I feel silly having to qualify and explain this, but I think it's important to say: I bring it up to normalize it and remove its stigma. I feel strongly that the more we show transparency about mental illness and its prevalence in the general population, the more we can become healthier individuals and a healthier society.

I also feel a little silly assuring people that I'm really fine, most of the time. The COVID-19 pandemic hit all of us hard and definitely took its toll on those of us with mental health issues. I take care of myself by attending counseling sessions and taking medication. I've not always been so diligent about taking care of myself, and those are the moments when I slip into what St. John of the Cross called, "The Dark Night of the Soul."

I do take comfort in knowing that many of the saints have suffered from depression. I feel like I'm in good company with not only John of the Cross, but also Augustine, Ignatius of Loyola, Elizabeth Ann Seton, Clare of Assisi, and Mother Theresa of Calcutta.

Of course, as a musician, music is balm for me. Musicians throughout history have expressed their own depression through music, from Gustav Mahler to Modest Mussorgsky to Nick Drake to Billie Eilish. One of my favorite sacred pieces is the simple Taizé ostinato that we frequently sing at the Easter Vigil: "Within our darkest night, you kindle the fire that never dies away, never dies away."

I'm not looking for attention or pity. I am looking for a listening ear and a shoulder to cry on, when I need them. I'm looking for solidarity, empathy, and a willingness to accompany not only me, but also all those who experience depression. I am, and they are, looking for understanding without judgment. Most of all, I'm looking to comfort anyone who might be reading this to assure them: You are not alone. If you or a loved one needs help, call 988 or visit 988lifeline.org.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Substitute Catechists Needed

We are in need of a few faith-filled people who will step forward occasionally to be a substitute when a catechist of any grade needs a day off.

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Children's Liturgy of the Word (CLOW) gathers young children, ages 4 to 10, for an age-appropriate experience of sacred scripture. We sing and hear God's word in a joyful environment for children. Children are dismissed after the opening prayer and gather in the church basement to hear the readings and reflect on the Gospel. After a profession of faith and intercessions, children return to Mass during the offering. It's easy to participate! The presiding priest will welcome the catechist and children to the front of the church, bless them, and send them on their way.

We would like to offer CLOW at St. Albert at the Sunday 11:00am Mass one weekend a month to start. This ministry can only exist with the willing hearts of volunteers. We have two specific needs:

1. Catechists - adults who lead the worship time. An outline of the worship time is provided to the catechists.
2. Shepherds - provide supervision and extra helping hands. This is a great volunteer opportunity for our junior high students.

Please join us! This volunteer experience is minimal in commitment, but high in its reward.

Parish Vitality Report

Curious about how the first year of Beacons of Light has gone in our 57 Families of Parishes?

Archbishop Schnurr has released the Year 1 Parish Vitality Report to bring everyone in the Archdiocese of Cincinnati up to date.

In addition to facts, figures, stories and witness, there's an opportunity for you to give feedback on your experience of parish life.

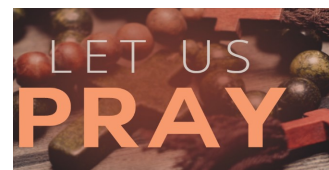

And there's a survey at the end, giving you an opportunity to share your feedback on Year 1 in your Family of Parishes.
