STAFF REFLECTIONS

Tom Hutchinson, Business Manager St. Albert

We are called...

President Kennedy gave a speech in his presidency that stated;

*"Ask not what your country can do for you,
ask what you can do for your country."*

This statement is also true for churches. There is a mindset that once a parish receives a priest, pastor, or associate they will run the parish and school. But there are many paid staff and volunteers that assist our great clergy with the many decisions involving our parish and school. Too often the typical person in the pew sees their role as a spectator, so actively engaging in the church is not necessary. All that is needed is to contribute to the collection.

This is far from the truth. The church needs volunteers and paid staff to continue the many services provided to the parish/school and local community.

As we continue with the Beacons of Light process, please pray God sends the Kettering Catholic Community good volunteers and staff to continue God's work in the church and school.

How can you answer the call today?
