ON THE JOURNEY

Father Ed Pratt, Pastor

Advent is Here...Happy New Year!

It may seem a little early to wish you a Happy New Year, but in our church calendar, Advent is the start of a new liturgical year. We know it to be a season of preparation for the solemnity of Christmas, but looking at it as a new beginning is also a way to look at how we can start the season by placing all the hub-bub of the season in proper perspective.

It is easy to get caught up in the holiday season of shopping, baking, attending parties, gift wrapping and staying extra busy. In the midst of all of this activity, let's not forget the reason for the season. The season of Advent leads us to prepare our hearts and homes for Christmas and the season of Christmas leads us to celebrate the presence of our Lord in our lives.

The song "Prepare Ye the Way of the Lord" from the musical Godspell uses only the words in the title throughout the whole song. One focus, one set of words, repeated for emphasis.

What will our one focus be this season of Advent? Let's make our emphasis one that focuses on true preparation for the Lord's coming.

Happy New Year! Happy Advent!

Let's continue on our journey with God and one another.

Peace,

Father Ed

A LETTER FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER ED PRATT

Dear Members of St. Albert the Great, a part of the Kettering Catholic Community,

This is the time of year we prepare for the celebrations of Advent and the upcoming Christmas season. We are thankful for our faith, family, friends, and parish community. We acknowledge Christ's presence throughout our daily life as we remember His birth among us.

We welcome you to our liturgies and activities not only at St. Albert the Great, but also within the Kettering Catholic Community at Ascension and St. Charles' parishes. This insert contains the schedule for Advent through Christmas liturgical season for the entire Kettering Catholic Community. We also have listed the website address for Ascension and St. Charles, where you can view their schedules online.

In your Envelope Packet and around campus, you will find donation envelopes for Christmas giving and the parish flower fund. As a donor of the flower fund, you may recognize a loved one, deceased or living, by writing their name on the back of the envelope. They will be remembered at all the Christmas Masses. If you return the flower fund envelope by December 15, their name will appear in the Christmas bulletin in the "In Memory Of" section or in the "In Honor Of" section. The flower fund donations assist with covering the cost of flowers throughout the year. Of note: Envelopes may be given at any of our three Kettering locations.

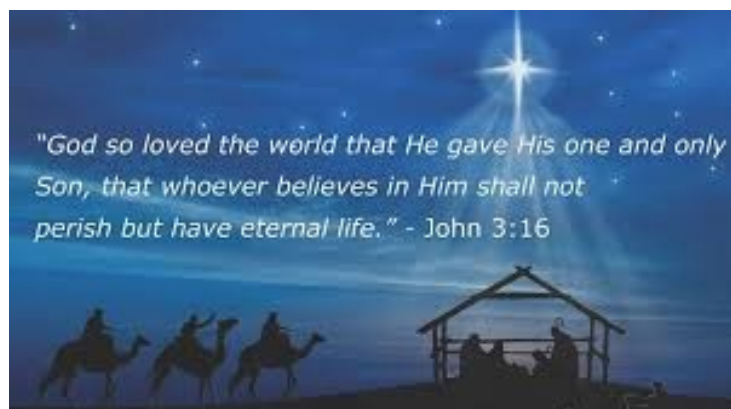

On-line WeShare Giving is always an option for donations, available on our website (see below) or by contacting our Parish Bookkeeper, Ann McManus, at amcmanus@stalbertthegreat.net.

As we enter into the season of Advent, I wish you and your family a faith-filled, prayerful journey, eagerly anticipating the special celebration of our Lord's birth.

The staff and I look forward to seeing you!
