FOLLOWING CHRIST'S EXAMPLE IN FAMILY LIFE

In this weekend's Gospel, we witness a moment where Jesus is misunderstood by His own family and accused by the scribes. This passage highlights misunderstandings and divisions, but also Jesus' steadfast commitment to His divine mission. As a mother of four, I find profound lessons in this scripture, particularly about teaching our children right from wrong in an often divided and confusing world.

Raising a family in these times, much like Jesus facing skepticism and opposition, requires patience, understanding, and a clear sense of purpose. Just as Jesus remained grounded in His mission despite external doubts, we too must stay committed to instilling values of truth, compassion, and unity in our children. Our role is to guide them, teaching them to discern right from wrong, much like how Jesus guided His followers with unwavering principles.

Jesus said, "If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand." This message is especially relevant today. Our communities often face divisiveness, and fostering a spirit of unity starts within our own homes. By teaching our children to work together and support one another, we build a foundation of cooperation and mutual respect. This unity within the family becomes an example of the broader societal harmony we hope to see.

Moreover, Jesus' response to His family's concerns underscores the importance of responding with compassion and clarity. When He says, "Whoever does God's will is my brother and sister and mother," He expands the concept of family to include all who live by love and righteousness. Teaching our children that family extends to our neighbors fosters a sense of community and shared responsibility.

In our professional and personal lives, let us embrace these Gospel lessons by working together and showing kindness to others, despite our differences. Just as Jesus extended His family to all believers, we can extend compassion and understanding beyond our immediate circles. By doing so, we contribute to healing divisions and creating a more unified, caring community.

May we continue to draw inspiration from Jesus' example, teaching our children and each other to live by the principles of love, compassion, and unity.

WORD ON FIRE: EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

Session 2: “Unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in you; he who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him.” (JOHN 6:53-56)

Please join us this Friday as we watch Fr. Don Calloway’s video, “30-Days to Eucharistic Revival,” followed by discussion and prayer. He has also written a very inspirational book by this title with daily reflections on the Eucharist.

Fr. Calloway, M.I.C. had an extraordinary conversion in his teen years after reading the above Scriptures. Jesus’ WORD in John 6 hit him very hard and led him to turn his whole life around and eventually become a priest. He is madly and intimately in love with Jesus in the Eucharist! The Eucharist is the Center and the Summit of his life now as it should be with each of us. We need to TRUST that Jesus meant what He said and that the Eucharist is not just a symbol, but the REAL PRESENCE of CHRIST in the BLESSED SACRAMENT who longingly wishes to abide in each one of us!

MONTHLY FOOD COLLECTION

The St. Albert Monthly Food Collection continues on the weekend of the second Sunday of each month. There will be an updated schedule coming for the second half of 2024 to reflect current realities. Our food and other critically needed items will continue to be sent to Catholic Services Choice Food Pantry which serves all the eligible people and families of West Dayton.

This ministry and the Meals for the Homeless were formed over 35 years ago in response to a Housing and Homelessness in Dayton study at St. Albert. Unfortunately, this challenge continues. Thank you for your generosity over the years and into the future as we strive to help our struggling neighbors.

This weekend is the June Collection. The July Collection is the weekend of July 13 and 14, gray bins will be placed outside of the church and chapel side for your items.

Contact Julie Burt at 937-409-6035 for more information.
