STAFF REFLECTION

With his feast day coming up on the 22nd, I thought I would steal some notes from Pope John Paul II. In his first homily after becoming pope, John Paul II urged Catholics everywhere to take a deeper look into their faith. One of his most famous lines comes from this homily: "Do not be afraid. Open wide the doors for Christ." What does this mean? And why do those words still resonate with us nearly 50 years later? In the simplest terms: faith in Christ and a commitment to His church does not grow old, unrelatable, or irrelevant, and actually makes our lives more vibrant and fulfilling.

In this first homily, JP II stressed Peter's remark when Jesus asks who the apostles say that He is: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Peter is telling Jesus that he believes He is the messiah. That He is God, the creator of the universe. That he believes Jesus is the one sent to save mankind from sin and death. That He is the one we should be putting our faith into and following. It is necessary to take a look into our own faith and ask ourselves, "Do I believe this? Do I look at Jesus as my lord and savior? If I believe that, what impact does it have on how I live my life?"

When we ask ourselves that question, we may not like the answer. It can be difficult to keep Christ at the center of our lives amidst the hustle and demands of life, and remembering that Christ is Lord may not seem relevant when we're standing in line at the grocery store or the bank, or finishing up a project at work, or trying to get the kids to eat their peas. But, even in the busyness, it is important to remember that Christ is always by our side, asking us to grow deeper in relationship with Him. He is always knocking on the door to our hearts, and asking us to say yes to Him. Asking us to let Him in.

Inviting Jesus in may cost us. Scratch that. It WILL cost us. It will cost us our time, energy, security, and more than anything our comfort zones and our very hearts. Jesus is asking us to give Him nothing less than our entire lives. And is it worth it? Is it worth it to give ourselves over to the Lord? This is a question that only we can answer for our own life. Saying yes could mean anything from smiling at someone when you walk by them or moving across the country to be a missionary. All I can say is that saying yes to the Lord has led me to a more abundant life and places I could never imagine (Like Kettering, Ohio). I encourage you all to go to Him in prayer and listen to where the Lord may be calling you to say yes to Him, and consider asking yourself the question: "Is it worth it to give all of myself to a creator who loves me entirely?"

Annie Outman
Junior High Youth Minister
St. Charles Borromeo Parish

LIP BALM COLLECTION

It is time for the St. Vincent de Paul lip balm collection. This collection benefits all shelter guests, young and old. Hard to believe after this past hot summer but the cold weather is right around the corner. The outdoor temperatures and the indoor dryness both contribute to dry, cracked lips. The lip balm is a frequent request from our neighbors at the shelters.

Amazon offers some good deals on multi packs and saves a shopping trip. From whatever source you choose to purchase the balm, it is appreciated. Please do not include lipstick or colored gloss. There will be baskets for your donations in the Vestibule the weekends of November 2/3 & November 9/10.

All other donations may be taken to the Apple St Shelter or the loading dock by the Job Center. Your continued support of our parish conference is greatly appreciated. Please know that you and your families are prayed for. If you are interested in being a part of this ministry, please call the Ascension Parish Office at 937-253-5171, ext. 106 and leave a message on the SVDP helpline and your call will be returned.

KCC MEMORIAL MASS

As part of our mission to bring our three parishes together, the Kettering Catholic Community will celebrate a communal Mass of Remembrance beginning this year. This is a special liturgy which will be held every year on a Saturday in early November to commemorate all those from our parish family who have passed away in the previous year. Each year, one of the parishes of the family will host this service on a rotating basis. This year, the Mass of Remembrance will begin at 9:30 a.m. on All Souls Day, November 2, 2024 at the Church of the Ascension.

All are welcome, especially the families of the deceased, to share in this special Mass and remember their loved ones. The names of those who have passed away from all three parishes will be read aloud, and their names shall be written in a Book of Remembrance for each parish. Father Tom will also bless a candle for each family to take with them at the end of Mass. Following this Mass, we will place a Book of Remembrance in each of our church Gathering Spaces/Narthex, where parishioners may write the names of deceased friends and loved ones at any time during the month. All names will be remembered at our Masses in November.

CHAIR ONE FITNESS PROGRAM

A new 4-week session of the Chair One Fitness program began on Tuesday, October 8th, 2024, with certified instructor Alice Ernst at Ascension. Plan to join us on Tuesday evenings October 15, 22, and 29 from 4:30 to 5:00 p.m. in Room 118 of the Witzman Center in the basement of Ascension Church. No special equipment is required; just wear some comfy clothes and shoes and come with a mind and body open to having fun and being energized. For any questions, contact Alice Ernst at alice4chaironefitness@gmail.com.
