LEMONADE OUT OF LEMONS

Ten years ago, I was on the way home from the zoo with my three-year-old son, Jonathan, in the backseat, not far from our house. A pickup truck pulling a boat was backing into one of the driveways, and I thought he was parking — it turned out that he was planning on pulling back out to turn around. As he was pulling back and gave me enough clearance, I went through. He honked.

I stopped and rolled down my window. He stepped out of the car to yell at me and shouted, "Think." I apologized and said, "Look, you were pulling in and I had enough clearance." He kept escalating.

As he climbed back into his truck, he yelled, "If you're going to live in this country, don't be an idiot."

It was my turn to step out of my car and yell. "Wait a minute. I was born in this country. I have lived in this country for forty years. My father was a colonel in the U.S. Army. I have an English degree."

There was a lot of shouting over each other. I didn't get everything he said, but a lot of it was repeating, "I have a right to say that." I responded, "That does not give you license to say that because of my skin color. That does not give you license to be racist."

He rolled up his window and appeared done, so I walked back to my car and we went our separate ways.

Jonathan asked after we got home, "Daddy, were you fighting with that man?" "Yes."

"Fighting is wrong."

"Yes, fighting is wrong. But sometimes you need to fight. You need to fight when something is unjust. That man said something very mean about Daddy's skin color. He said that Daddy doesn't belong in this country because of his skin color. And Daddy had to tell him he was wrong for saying that. Now, did Daddy hit him?"

"No."

"No. Hitting is still wrong. Daddy was just using words."

What does this story have to do with Pentecost, which the Church celebrates this weekend? Everything.

At that first Pentecost, the Holy Spirit made lemonade out of lemons. It ignited the hearts of the disciples, imperfect and frightened sinners, and birthed the Church. It took the many languages that divided the nations and put them in the mouths of the disciples, so that they could share the Gospel with anyone who would receive it.

The Holy Spirit continues to make lemonade out of lemons. That incident ten years ago changed me. Before it, I would shrug off racist comments and walk away. But this man dared to question my human dignity in front of my son. His bigoted worldview is the antithesis of how the Holy Spirit works through us, or the diversity of the Church, much less our country.

I still pray for him and others like him, ten years later.

Come, Holy Spirit. Renew the face of the earth.

POLICY ON PYXES IN COMMUNION LINE

EFFECTIVE JUNE 21, 2025

“In the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, those who take Communion to the sick and homebound are to be called forward after the Prayer After Communion. The minister receives the pyx with the appropriate number of Hosts at that time and are sent forth by the community. Therefore, hosts are not to be placed in a pyx in the Communion procession.” (This Holy and Living Sacrifice, 2018)

St. Albert and St. Charles already follow this practice, but it is new for Ascension. Beginning the weekend of the Feast of Corpus Christi, June 21-22, 2025, Ascension will also follow the directive from the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. This will apply only to weekend liturgies. Daily Mass procedures will be changed at a later date.

Clean, open pyxes should be placed on the tray on a table in the baptistry before Mass begins. Pyxes are available to be signed out in the Lay Ministers' Room.

Laminated cards will be on the tray with a dry erase marker. Each person will fill out the information (their name and number of hosts) on one card and place it with the open pyx.

As Communion ends, an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (EMHC), the priest, or deacon will place the appropriate number of hosts in each pyx and close it.

Near the end of Mass, those taking Communion to the home-bound will be called forward to retrieve their pyx from the tray.

If a pyx is brought in the Communion line, the minister will quietly ask to meet you in the chapel after Mass to obtain the hosts from the Tabernacle. Those who do not wish to use the tray may approach an EMHC or staff person after Mass to receive hosts in a clean pyx. Thank you in advance for your understanding as we align closer to the norms from the Archdiocese of Cincinnati.

MISSION APPEAL WEEKENDS

As part of the Archdiocesan Missionary Cooperation Plan, Reverend Francis Tandoh, C.S.Sp., will visit St. Charles Borromeo Church on June 14-15, 2025, and Fr. Tandoh or Fr. Benoit Mukamba will visit Ascension and St. Albert Campuses on June 28-29 to speak about the missionary work of the Church and in particular that of the Spiritans (officially the Congregation of the Holy Spirit). To learn more about the Spiritans, please visit their website at spiritans.org.

This visit is part of a national program in which, annually, a representative of one of the missionary groups visits parishes of the Archdiocese to invite parishioners to share in the mission work of the Universal Church. The Spiritans are an international community engaged in a wide range of missionary activity in more than 60 countries throughout the world and in the United States. Fr. Francis is a missionary priest from Ghana now serving as pastor of a group of parishes in Dayton.

When Jesus said: "You shall witness to me in Jerusalem and in Samaria and to the ends of the earth," He made the spread of the Gospel an essential part of our Catholic life.

If you are able, please give generously to this missionary collection.

ACTS XXIX

Friday, June 13 at 9:15 a.m. in Borromeo Room, St. Charles Borromeo Campus

Welcome to a new 6-week Podcast series, HE IS RISEN: WE HAVE WORK TO DO. This is a follow-up series to the RESCUE PROJECT with Fr. John Riccardo and Mary Gilfoild. It can be found on YouTube at "You Were Born for This with Fr. John and Mary," beginning with Episode 329. It is based on Lectio from The Acts of the Apostles from the readings from Easter to Pentecost. It is very appropriate with our current Church culture, papacy and renewal being undertaken.

SESSION 1: HE IS RISEN!

Today is Pentecost! Pentecost was Graduation Day for The Apostles who felt powerless after Jesus' Ascension. In the upper room, the wind blew, tongues of fire came upon them. They became empowered to be Jesus' witnesses through the Holy Spirit. Peter stood up before the gathered people. They each heard Him in their own language. Three thousand were converted that day. (Acts 2) They were overwhelmed by the Gospel and proclaimed it with enthusiasm.

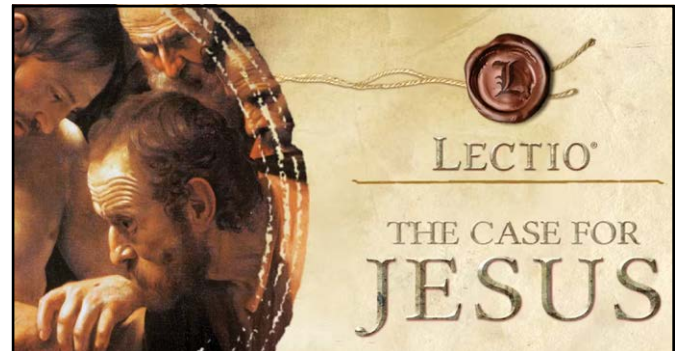

We, too, receive that power of the Holy Spirit at our Baptism and Confirmation. The Apostles weren't discouraged, even though they were just 12, but went out to all the nations with great faith and spread God's WORD of Hope and Recreation. We have work to do, too! There are only 28 chapters in Acts. We are living "Chapter 29!" Come join us on Friday mornings, beginning 6/13 for coffee, conversation, prayer and podcast.

WHERE: St. Charles Borromeo Campus, Borromeo Room

WHEN: Friday, June 13, 9:15-11 a.m.

LEGION OF MARY

You are invited to join the Legion of Mary for their weekly meetings. They meet every Monday at 6:45 p.m. at St. Albert the Great, in the Spirit Center. For more information, contact Mr. Ennis Dodd at 937-999-1263 or legionofmarystalbert@yahoo.com.

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP (@ ASCENSION)

Session 3: Are the Gospels biographies? Do the Gospels tell us the truth about Jesus? Or should we view them as folklore, fables, or legends? Dr. Pitre demonstrates how the Gospels are best understood as ancient biographies, and, consequently, as reliable sources of historical information about Jesus. All men of MGFP are invited to participate on June 14, 8-9am, Witzman Center, Room 119. Contact Mike Wager, at mewager07@gmail.com, 937-361-1369.
